Book – Share Jesus without Fear

The gospel polarizes...either the truth sets them free, or it makes them angry. That's an important fact to remember when sharing Christ. To some, "we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing" (2 Cor 2:15), [we are] "a fragrance from death to death [but] to the other a fragrance from life to life" (2 Cor 2:16). To some, we are a "fragrance from life to life," meaning there is a physical birth, but God also offers eternal life through Christ so that we might be born again, so it is a physical life to an eternal one, but to others, the good news is "a fragrance from death (their physical death) to death" (their eternal judgment). Needless to say, it is never our responsibility to save anyone...it is their response to His ability, but it is our responsibility to witness.

2 Corinthians 13 – Examine Your Life. It is your move.

Jesus said, "Remember the word that I said to you: 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours" (John 15:20), so we cannot take persecution personally. But neither can we persecute non-believers, and sadly, I've seen a few believers try to persecute those who don't believe, because they haven't trusted in Christ, but that's wrong. It is God Who draws people to Christ (John 6:44), and Christ alone saves (Acts 4:12). God opens hearts, just as He did with Lydia (Acts 16:14). We can't even save ourselves...we must be called to Christ by God (John 6:44), because dead people can't make decisions for Christ (Eph 2:1-6). Of course, God will use us as a means to save some, but clearly, He does the saving (Prov 21:1). The lost cannot even see their need for Christ without God's Spirit, so it's like trying to blame a blind man for running into things. They can't see. Remember, we too were once blind, but made to see; we were once lost, but now are found (Luke 15:32).
